Re: Peckham, Jacob L.May 24, 2023*Page 2

Overall, he has appeared motivated to remain gainfully employed and sober. The above-noted use of methamphetamine came to the USPO's knowledge based off Mr. Peckham's decision to be honest. Mr. Peckham's use appears to have occurred in between urinalysis testing.

Mr. Peckham has chosen to change his employment to help him avoid environments that limit his ability to remain sober. He is currently working for a lawn care company and indicates it is a healthier environment for him to be in.

He completed a mental health evaluation on March 23, 2023. He was recommended to attend two counseling sessions per month to help address his depression, anxiety and history of trauma.

On April 18, 2023, he attended an admit appointment with Pioneer Human Services (PHS) and was enrolled in outpatient substance abuse treatment. Additionally, he reports attending regular sober support meetings.

At this time, it appears he is taking necessary efforts to avoid additional use of illicit substances. It is respectfully recommended that no further action be taken at this time. Should the Court require a different course of action or a Court appearance by Mr. Peckham, please advise the undersigned officer

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
